

HARDING PLUNGES INTO A SERIES OF OFFICIAL TASKS

Grand Rush To White House
To Present Problems
To President.

HUGHES HAS MANY IMPORTANT ISSUES

President To Clear Desk
For His Trip To The Pacific Coast.

Washington, April 9.—Back at his desk in the White House after five weeks of strenuous vacationing in the south, President Harding rolled up his sleeves today and plunged headlong into a series of tasks which will keep him busily engaged until he is ready to leave Washington again for his trip to the Pacific coast.

The amount of administrative work that awaited his consideration was monumental in its proportions, but the president, bronzed by hot Florida suns and refreshed by hundreds of rounds of golf, waded into it with a determination to speed things up to the limit until he sees his way clear once more.

There was a grand rush to the White House this morning from all parts of the capital as cabinet officials vied with one another in being the first to get their various problems formally before the president.

All of them were given an opportunity during the day, however, to "talk things over" with Mr. Harding; and there will be a general discussion of governmental affairs, both domestic and foreign, when the cabinet meets tomorrow for the first time in six weeks.

Secretary of State Hughes stood well in the lead today with the importance of the questions on policy upon which he sought the advice of the chief executive. These included his controversy with Acting Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt over the interpretation of the Washington naval treaty with respect to increasing the firing range of the guns on American warships, the protest of the Canadian government against efforts of the shipping board to aid the enforcement of the Volstead act by prohibiting buyers of American vessels from using them in the rum running trade and the pending negotiations in Paris to secure the payment of the $250,000,000 bill of this government for the maintenance of an occupational army in Germany from the beginning of the armistice until the French invasion of the Ruhr.

Mr. Hughes also planned to report to the president on the status of the negotiations with the Japanese government looking toward abrogation of the Lansing-Ishii agreement, under which the United States in 1917 recognized the "special interests" of Japan in China. These negotiations have been conducted in profound secrecy and officials have permitted no inkling of their progress to be made public.

Many important domestic problems also were to receive Mr. Harding's immediate attention, including the plans of Chairman Lasker, of the shipping board to dispose of the government's great merchant fleet, the three-cornered probe of high sugar prices now being conducted by the department of justice, the commerce department and the tariff commission, and the request of Secretary of Commerce Hoover for an executive order from the White House to stop all government construction work during periods of labor shortage so that there will be work for the jobless during stress of possible depressions.

WHISKY IS FOUND IN MAN'S POCKET

Mayor Fines Yarvosky $300
After Police Raid His Home On Depot St.

It cost just $300 for John Yarvosky, 325 Depot st., to carry a quart of moonshine whisky in his overcoat pocket Saturday night.

Yarvosky was arrested at his boarding house at 9:45 p. m. Saturday by Officers Gray, Kirkbride, Bryn and H. Parker Lowell of the citizens committee, after a search of his room revealed a bottle of liquor in his overcoat pocket.

Suspicion had been directed against the boarding house, owned by Sam Hoza, and Chief Thompson ordered the place raided. The chief notified the citizens committee and asked for men to assist the police and Lowell responded.

When the whisky was found Yarvosky was not at home and police arrested the boarding mistress. The occupants of the house were notified that the woman would be held until Yarvosky was produced and it was just a half hour later that Yarvosky was arrested.

When arraigned before Mayor John W. Post, Yarvosky admitted his guilt and was fined $300. He arranged to pay the fine today and was remanded to jail until the money was produced.

The visit to the Hoza home was one of a series of raids made by the police officers Saturday night. His was the only place in which liquor was found.

3 Lisbon Houses Robbed, Jewelry And Cash Taken

Burglars entered three homes in Lisbon Sunday night and secured about $100 in cash and loot as the result of their activities.

The homes of W. B. Chaine, Clark Guide and W. J. Dorrance on East Chestnut st. were broken into during the hour of church services and judging from the evident familiarity with the interior of the homes it is suspected that local talent is involved.

Mrs. Cable, who had retired, heard a noise down stairs and called out, thinking it was one of the family returning from church. Receiving no reply she investigated and found the outer door open but nothing disturbed. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Chaine found that a bedroom upstairs had been literally turned inside out, and $25, a number of rings and other jewelry including some articles of clothing had vanished. The intruders had obtained entrance by using a "jimmy" on a kitchen window.

At the W. J. Dorrance home, a child's bank containing about $5, a gold watch belonging to Miss Martha Dorrance and a ladies hand bag containing about $1.50 in change were missing. Entrance had been obtained by using a "jimmy" on a window.

At the Dorrance home nothing had been disturbed, the intruders seeming to know exactly where to find what they sought.

The burglaries have increased the apprehension roused by a series of robberies perpetrated about two weeks ago. Efforts of the local police will be redoubled to apprehend the burglars as it is certain that local talent is involved.

AGREEMENT ENDS EAST LIVERPOOL'S TRACTION STRIKE

344-Day Dispute Ends As Strikers Ratify Terms
Of Agreement.

East Liverpool, April 9.—(Spl.) East Liverpool's street car strike has been settled.

The settlement was reached yesterday afternoon after the city had been without street car service for 344 days.

Striking car men, at a meeting in Trades and Labor council hall yesterday afternoon, voted ratification of an agreement previously agreed to by officials of the Steubenville, East Liverpool and Beaver Valley Traction company.

A formal contract covering the agreement was signed this morning by officials of Division No. 52 of the carmen's union and by officials of the traction company.

All points at issue have been amicably settled, and the only condition to immediate resumption of street car service here is enactment of an ordinance by city council, similar to the one passed several months ago and defeated at the recent special election, permitting the traction company to increase its fares.

City council will meet in regular session tonight and at that meeting an ordinance will be presented to increase fares in accordance with the schedule of prices provided for under the other ordinance.

The prediction was widely made today that if the ordinance is passed by council tonight, cars will be in operation here before the end of the week, and possibly by Wednesday or Thursday.

Officials of the traction company have proved to the satisfaction of the men that they cannot afford to pay the scale of wages asked unless they are permitted to obtain a greater revenue through increased fares. As a result the employees of the company will join officials of the company in asking council to pass the ordinance.

The settlement was brought about as the result of two weeks of quiet bargaining "behind the scenes" in which ATU's K. G. Thompson played the role of mediator. He it was who by a process of gradual elimination smoothed out step by step the points at issue until finally the point was reached where both officials of the company and their former employees had reached a basis of agreement. This accomplished, the result was submitted to the men for a vote yesterday, and the agreement was accepted by them by a big majority.

PLAN TO ACT ON GOVERNOR'S VETO

Salem Sportsmen Assail
Veto Of Fisherman's
License Bill.

A meeting to consider some action to be taken on Gov. Vic Donahue's veto of the fisherman's license bill will be held Monday evening by the Salem branch of the Columbiana County Fish and Game association.

The measure, which passed both house and senate by a comfortable majority, would have been of great assistance in providing the fish hatchery at Guilford dam, which project has been promoted by the county association of sportsmen.

In a message to the legislature explaining his veto of the measure, Gov. Donahue declared that if it should become the policy of the state to license anglers to raise funds for the propagation of fish in inland waters of the state, such a measure should be preceded by more extensive activities to eliminate stream pollution, in order that the fish placed in the waters may live and mature. "Our stream pollution is becoming a disgrace and a menace to the state," the governor declared in his message.

Individual protests against the veto of the measure have been sent to Gov. Donahue by members of the association throughout the county.

Pastor Eulogizes Traveling Men At Memorial Service

Rev. Harman Is Speaker At Annual Exercises Of Salem Council.

Few persons have a greater opportunity to analyze character than traveling men, and we can best pay our respect to the memory of those who have gone before us by carrying on what they held to be noble.

So declared Rev. J. P. Harman of the Holy Trinity English Lutheran church, Sunday afternoon when he delivered the memorial sermon at the annual memorial service of Salem council No. 590, United Commercial Travelers, before a large audience of members and friends.

H. F. Wilson, senior counselor, presided over the exercises with the assistance of P. H. Mead, C. S. Metz, W. H. Voneman, E. W. Floyd, Conrad Thumm and F. H. Heckert. The memorial honored the following departed brothers: James E. Maule, Adna Silver Day, Frank W. Glass and Walter H. Meyerhofer. Miss Ora Vincent and Robert L. Wright sang a duet.

"The chief advantage in a memorial service is that it provides an opportunity for us to look back and to consider life in all its aspects," said Rev. Harman.

"Traveling men must be prepared to meet characters of all types and to make themselves friendly with all sorts of people. Traveling men soon learn to analyze and pick out the characteristics they most admire in men which lead themselves to improving community life.

"It is the common man who builds for himself an enduring memorial by accomplishing great things but by doing little things well and thereby serving his community.

"More than men of any other profession the traveling man must have charity of judgment that enables him to see good in others and to speak well of all men and to always see the brighter side of life."

Divine Services Honor Memory Of Departed Moose

100 Lodge Members Attend
Memorial Program At Episcopal Church.

Honoring the memory of their departed brothers, more than 100 members of Salem lodge No. 571, Loyal Order of Moose, attended divine services Sunday night at the Church of Our Saviour.

Rev. F. S. Eastman and Jesse Delenbaugh exemplified the ritualistic service of the order. An excellent musical program by the church choir was carried out and pictures of the life of Christ and the Resurrection were shown by Rev. Mr. Eastman.

Taking as his text, "I am the Resurrection and the Life," the pastor delivered a timely sermon in which he urged the need of preparation in this life, and stressed the ideals of lodge fraternity and brotherhood, showing the connection between fraternal ideals and the family life of Christ.

The following program was carried out:

Pine organ prelude, Miss Bernice Morgan; procession, choir; devotional, Rev. F. S. Eastman; vocal solo, "Lead Kindly Light," R. E. Roberts; Extemporization of Moose memorial ritual, Rev. F. S. Eastman and Jesse Delenbaugh; chorus, "Alleluia"; choir, "Nearer My God to Thee"; choir; address, Rev. F. S. Eastman; vocal solo, "Now The Day Is Over," Mrs. C. W. Leland; recessional, choir.

INFIRMARY INMATE COMMITTS SUICIDE

John Small, 72, Wellsville, inmate of the county infirmary, shot himself through the head Sunday, dying almost instantly. Small had been in poor health during his six years residence at the infirmary and the last week his malady had grown worse.

In some manner unknown to Supt. L. B. Harris he had procured a 32-caliber revolver and had concealed it in his room. While he was alone in the dormitory of the building he secured the gun and fired the fatal shot. Hearing the report of a shot the attendants rushed to the room and found him breathing his last.

The circumstances surrounding his death were investigated by County Coroner Van Fossan and a verdict of suicide given. The man had no relatives and will be buried at the institution.

SALEM AUTO CLUB STARTS CAMPAIGN FOR 400 MEMBERS

Club Takes First Step To Enlist Every Auto
Owner In City.

A campaign to enlist 400 members was started Monday morning by the Salem Automobile club as the first step to secure every automobile owner in this district as a member.

The campaign will be in charge of D. W. Davis, secretary-treasurer of the organization. Officers and directors of the club are C. S. French, president; D. E. Mather, vice president; directors, C. W. Zimmerman, James England, H. B. Thomas, E. W. Floyd, A. W. Forney and D. E. Kellar.

The committee who will make the canvass for members includes Herman Knisely, C. W. Zimmerman, C. A. Tolerton, D. E. Mather, Ward Eckstein, E. W. Floyd, H. B. Thomas, James England, C. S. French and D. W. Davis.

The automobile club through its membership in the Ohio State Automobile association and the American Automobile association, has aided in saving about $10,000,000 annually to the owners of motor vehicles through its work in bringing about the defeat of the gasoline tax bill in the legislature. This measure would have compelled every auto owner to pay a tax of two cents a gallon on gasoline.

The Salem club provided a means of securing auto licenses direct without the necessity of waiting for the tags to be sent by mail from Columbus. It is expected that more than 2,000 licenses will have been distributed by the club before summer.

In speaking of the work of the automobile clubs in helping defeat the gasoline tax bill, Charles C. Jones, secretary of the state association declared that "it was a battle of the taxpayers against the tax spenders, led by the Ohio State Automobile association through its 73 affiliated clubs, which practically shouldered the struggle alone except for the aid from the civic organizations over the state whose support was secured through the efforts of the various automobile clubs."

CASEYS INITIATE FIFTY CANDIDATES

Salem's delegation numbered about 60 and the local degree team put on the second degree. The third degree was conferred by T. J. Duffy, Columbus and staff. Dinner was served the candidates at the hotel.

About 300 knights from Salem, East Liverpool, Leostonia, Youngstown, Canton, Cleveland, Lisbon attended this meeting.

Grabs Pistol, Knife And Threatens Death

Lisbon, April 9.—After having celebrated Sunday too well, Felix Marchino, a Jordanville Italian, woke up Monday in a surly mood. When asked to rise and start to work by his boarder, he grabbed a revolver, a knife and threatened all kinds of violent death to him and his entire family.

Deputy George Wright was called and soon put Marchino behind the bars at the city hall. Later Marchino appeared before Squire Albright and made complaint against him and a trial was arranged.

CHURCH MEMBERS IN DEMONSTRATION ON LEAGUE ISSUE

Pandemonium Reigns When
Capitol Pastor Plays
Versailles Treaty.

TO BE FOUGHT OUT
IN CHURCHES, CLAIM

Committee Head Pleads
For U. S. Entry Into League.

Washington, April 9.—The issue of the league of nations injected into the forthcoming presidential campaign by former Justice John H. Clarke of the United States supreme court is plying to be fought out in the churches as well as on the political stage.

Church members here in Washington were again taking sides today as they did two years ago following the delivery on Sunday of two sermons which invited them to line up for a final fight over Article 10 and other much debated international treaties presented by the Treaty of Versailles.

Denunciation of the Paris peace treaty and criticism of Woodrow Wilson in a sermon at the First Congregational church last night threw the audience into what at least one newspaper described as "pandemonium."

The speaker was the Rev. Charles F. Aked of London, New York and San Francisco who intimated that the former president had permitted himself to be "misled."

Pleads For League.

At the same time Dr. Irving Fisher a member of the executive committee of the league of nations non-partisan association, was telling a large congregation at the Foundry Methodist Episcopal church, that it was the "Christian duty" of the United States to affiliate with the league and that such affiliation could only be accomplished through the churches.

"When the Rev. Mr. Aked voiced his anti-league sentiments, a richly dressed woman in the audience rose to her feet with the cry:

"All friends of Woodrow Wilson will leave this place."

The aisles of the church immediately became congested as some members of the congregation sought to leave the church while others crowded toward the pulpit. Cries arose from various parts of the church, drowning the voice of the minister.

Attacks Wilson

Mr. Aked had just characterized the Versailles treaty as "an infamous document born of secret deliberations and treaties on the part of the Allies, which were a betrayal of the policy for which Woodrow Wilson as representative of America stood."

After the uproar subsided he continued his sermon which was entitled "Woodrow Wilson at His Best—a Tender, a Beautiful Idealization of the Great Failure."

There was no demonstration in connection with Prof. Fisher's pleas for the entry of the United States in the league of nations.

"If the United States is ever to enter the league," he declared, "it will be through the churches and a realization that it is the Christian duty of the United States to do so."

The Maxwell Motor Corporation's

annual statement for 1922 just released for publication by Wm. Robt. Wilson, president, is a record of remarkable achievement for the past year, and marks the Maxwell as one of the outstanding successes among automobile companies.

The reconstruction of the Maxwell product has been an obvious success to all who follow motor car design, but that such astonishing financial progress could have been accomplished coincidentally comes as a complete and commendable surprise.

The profits of the Maxwell corporation exceeded $2,000,000 for the year. On December 31, 1922, cash and security balances were in excess of $3,000,000 with a ratio of current assets to current liabilities of approximately 3 1/2 to 1. The splendid year-end showing comes on top of a record for the year which includes the retirement of over $5,000,000 in funded debt and the financing of the acquisition of the entire ownership of the physical assets of the Chalmers Motor corporation.

Over 55,000 cars were sold in 1922, placing the Maxwell in eighth position in the whole automobile industry; notwithstanding the fact that 1923 schedules call for a substantial increase over the previous year's business, car sales for January and February are exceeding the increased schedule by more than 10 per cent and March production and sales will show an even better increase.

USE MEXICAN AID IN RUBBER WAR

Recognition Of Mexico
Would Help Defeat Rubber Monopoly.

Washington, April 9.—Rubber as well as oil today became a factor in the problem of Mexican recognition, as American officials investigating the rubber situation awoke to the possibilities of the southern republic as a means of defeating the British rubber monopoly of the East Indies. Mexico has a vast area of lands suitable for growing several varieties of rubber, and the Mexican government is ready to cooperate with American experts or American capital in the exploitation of these facilities, according to Manuel C. Tellez, chargé d'affaires of the Mexican embassy here.

The transplanted India rubber tree grows in abundance in practically the whole of the humid region south of Vera Cruz, Señor Tellez declared, and the successful operation of a number of plantations there is ample proof of the suitability of the soil and climate for its cultivation.

Hardy Plant
In one important respect, he said, Mexico possesses a unique advantage over Latin-American countries where rubber is grown. The Guayule plant, from which rubber can be produced in large quantities, grows wild in all the northern states of Mexico from Zacatecas to the American boundary. Like the sagebrush and cactus in the American desert regions, this plant thrives, according to Señor Tellez, in the hot, dry latitudes and yields more than 60 per cent of rubber.

Department of commerce officials will take cognizance of the possibilities of the rubber industry in Mexico in the investigation which has been authorized by congress.

Since the United States is by far the greatest consumer of rubber in the world, and since both the government and individual business concerns are anxious to establish a source of supply independent of the British monopoly, it is assumed that the industry would be exploited on a large scale if conditions in Mexico were found suitable. For such an enterprise, however, it is admitted that an adjustment of political relations on a basis satisfactory to both governments would be highly desirable, if not absolutely essential.

Your blood changes in the Spring. Why?

YOUR blood is thicker and more sluggish in winter than in summer—it has to be to keep you warm. Then comes warmer days and lighter clothes. Your blood, still thick and heavy-laden, is slow to throw off its impurities. What happens? The impurities crowd out through the skin—boils and pimples appear—you feel sluggish and tired! The remedy for this condition is S. S. S. It is the ideal blood purifier, because the medicinal properties are purely vegetable. It is

Charge Teacher With Assaulting Pupil

Lisbon, April 9.—Charging D. H. Speidel, a teacher in the village school at Dungannon with assaulting a pupil by the name of Henry Shontz and with contributing to the delinquency of the boy, Speidel has been sworn out for his arrest. He will be brought into juvenile court before Judge Riddle today.

The charges have divided the village into two camps and charges and counter charges are being freely made. The matter has been fomenting for some days and culminated, it is alleged, in an assault made by the teacher. Mr. Speidel belongs to one of Hanover's best known families and the interest in the matter has been roused to a fever heat.

Ford Weekly Purchase Plan

For many years it has been Henry Ford's personal ambition to make the Ford the universal family car—to put it within the reach of the millions of people who have never been privileged to enjoy the benefits of motor car ownership.

During the past fifteen years over 7,500,000 Ford Cars have been placed in the hands of retail customers—more than a million and a half of them within the past twelve months—and yet there are still millions of families who are hopefully looking forward to the day when they can own a Ford. And now the way is open.

Under the terms of this plan you can select your Ford Car, set aside a small amount each week and you will be surprised how soon you will own it. In the meantime your money will be safely deposited to your credit in one of the local banks where it will draw interest.

Think it over. Five dollars will start an account. The whole family can participate in it—father, mother, brothers and sisters each doing a little.

Why not start today. Stop in and talk it over with your local Ford dealer. He will be glad to fully explain the details of the plan and help you get started toward the ownership of a Ford car.

"Kangaroo" Court Quits Trying To Drain Cincinnati Dry

Mayor Denies Rough Stuff Traced To Deputies Ended Activities.

Cincinnati, April 9.—Following a report that B. F. McDonald, state prohibition commissioner, had warned village courts in Hamilton county, declaring that the state would not tolerate "kangaroo court" methods that involved blackmail, extortion, "planting of evidence" and use of blank warrants by fee basis dry agents, Newton has quit the business of trying Cincinnati liquor law suspects.

Newtown, one of a half dozen rural communities thriving on the profits of Crabbie law raids into Cincinnati, which yield fat fees through imposition of fines, has been called by state and federal dry authorities one of the busiest "kangaroo courts" sites in Ohio, but Mayor Ralph Kinney, railroad engineer, denies that alleged "rough stuff" traced to his deputies, led to the decision to go out of business.

The mayor has been going out on his run on the railroad three days a week, trying Cincinnati's prisoners the three other week days. His explanation of the village's retirement from the game is pressure of business.

Last week two of his deputies were arrested on bribery charges, reporting the finding, police money on them.

Argument Over Few Cents Ends In Fight

An argument over 20 cents resulted in a free for all fight late Saturday night at the Central confectionery, Lundy and Main sts., and caused police to respond to a call to quell the trouble.

Two Salem youths used the telephone in the establishment to make a long distance call to East Palestine and when they offered the proprietor 20 cents for the call, he is said to have declared it was 15 cents for the message. An argument ensued and the proprietor is said to have struck one of the pair, which started the fight.

Officer Bryn responded to a call and the three were notified to appear before Mayor John W. Post at 7 p. m. Monday. Charges of disorderly conduct have been placed against them.

PRETTY PRINCESS
HALTS OBJECTIONS
WEDS WAR VETERAN

Rome, April 9—A tall slender, olive skinned girl, who in the legends of Italy was "born to be a soldier's bride," fulfilled the prophecy here today when the Princess Jolanda, eldest daughter of King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Elena, was married to Count Calvi Di Bergolo, war veteran and a captain in the Italian cavalry.
There were two services, one civil and the second religious, in accordance with the ritual of the Roman Catholic church. It was the first time a religious nuptial ceremony had taken place in the royal hall of the Quirinal palace, formerly the throne hall of the popes.
This was the first royal marriage in Italy in 27 years and the first in Europe since the Princess Mary, daughter of King George of England, was married 14 months ago.
The Princess Jolanda, a beautiful girl of 22, had been reported engaged to sons of two royal families—first the Prince of Wales and later to the crown prince of Belgium. Such a marriage contract would have had a large element of international politics and diplomacy involved in it.
The wedding today was the celebration of a genuine love match, for the bridegroom is not a member of royalty. He belongs only to the Piedmont-Savoie nobility.
Serious obstacles arose when Count Di Bergolo began to pay court to the pretty princess. The king and queen objected. But then Jolanda solicited the aid of her grandmother, the former Queen Milena of Montenegro. She proved an excellent diplomat and the parental objections were swept away.

Her Wedding Gown
Italy's court was in mourning for the late Queen Milena, who died shortly after the engagement was announced, but the mourning period was suspended for one day for the nuptials.
Jolanda was radiantly happy and beautiful in her long-trained wedding gown. The gown worn at the civil ceremony was gray marocain trimmed with silk cord braid. The gown worn at the religious ceremony was of white and silver brocade, low-waisted and trimmed with seven yards of priceless old lace. It was constructed on the simplest lines. In accordance with custom, Jolanda wore no jewels.
After the double ceremony Jolan-da's semi-russet cheeks were suffused with blushes of happiness and excitement.
The wedding was a quiet affair, compared with the nuptial events of royal families in pre-war days. Seven hundred invitations were sent out but no representatives of foreign royal families were present.
Owing to the hard times through which Italy has been passing Jolan-da had requested that there be no elaborate wedding presents, but that the money intended for this purpose should be turned over to charity. Consequently most of the gifts were simple, useful articles.

Giant Airship Sails
On Maiden Voyage

Akron, April 9—While Akron slept the giant airship T-4, bearing a group of army officers, took flight this morning at 3:15 o'clock on its voyage to Scott field, Illinois.
Officials of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company, where the huge dirigible was constructed, said the ship's first stop would be Fort Benjamin Harrison, near Indianapolis.

IRISH IRREGULARS
DISCUSS PLANS TO ABANDON WARFARE

Dublin, April 9.—Two Republican Irregulars and one Free State soldier were killed and four others injured today in a battle near New-ford today.
One Free State soldier was wounded when Irish irregulars bombed Goutari station. Detectives in Dublin arrested a rebel captain and 12 of his followers. They located a large secret supply of munitions.
The Free State made public captured documents showing that irregular leaders during March exchanged views over the possibility of continuing armed resistance. The general opinion of the southern rebels was that it would be impossible to carry on the fight through another summer.
Many leaders declared in favor of continuing but said they had little hope of eventual victory as the morale of the men had been shaken and they were suffering great privations.

DONAHY DEMANDS
HERRICK RESIGN

Columbus, April 9.—Highway Director Leon C. Herrick today received a letter from Gov. Donahy requesting his resignation to take effect not later than April 15.
Mr. Herrick said that he "has had no statement to make until he has had opportunity to think the matter over."

McGRAW IS STILL BIG BOSS OF HIS NEW YORK GIANTS

Mailed Fist Responsible For Commendable Pitching.

New York, April 9.—The iron hand of John McGraw is responsible for the commendable pitching of Hugh McQuillan and Jess Barnes in recent games against the Chicago White Sox. Although it is not generally known, this worthy pair was more or less concerned in the breach of training at San Antonio, which ended in John Scott being fined $100 and the banishment of Earl Smith to the second team.

Just why McGraw countenanced the derelictions of McQuillan and Barnes and not those of Scott and Smith is not known, but he probably had his own very good reasons. No one can dispute the fact that his handling of men gets the desired result.

In this case, it has resulted in Scott, McQuillan and Barnes pitching excellent ball and the chances are that the incident would be speedily forgotten if McGraw did not have other plans. It is said that as soon as the second team returns from a protracted tour, McGraw intends to cut loose from Earl Smith with definite finality.

Tired of Smith

That is his first contemplated step; by way of reprisal for the flouting of his stern discipline. His next is said to be a proposal to Cincinnati Reds, where the Barnes-Laue trade negotiations will be reopened. If the Cincinnati club will accept Smith, he also will be tossed into the deal for good measure. In fact, he has tire of Smith as a steady diet and plans to let him go to the highest bidder if any.

As for Barnes, it has been no chamber secret that McGraw has soured on his pitching during recent seasons and the spark of his antipathy needed only the San Antonio incident to be fanned into an active flame. Barnes' position with the world's champions is most uncertain at this time.

McQuillan has been given to understand that he is on probation, but his recent work has been so good it is likely that McGraw is willing to forgive and forget. As a matter of fact he couldn't afford to let his resentment against McQuillan and Scott run beyond the bounds of good sense. The Giants must have a pitching staff if they intend to win their third successive National League pennant and the former Boston hurler's constitution has about 50 per cent of the strength of McGraw's pitching.

He, therefore, considered that his official dignity had been preserved with a fine for Scott and a tongue-lashing for McQuillan, meantime reserving for Barnes and Smith, less valued members of the outfit, the privilege of paying for the incident in full.

Postpone Tourney Because Of Illness

New York, April 9.—Owing to the illness of Robert L. Canfield, the round robin tournament for the professional three-cushion billiard championship, scheduled to begin on Monday in St. Louis, has been postponed one week.

Under the new schedule, the first set of matches will be held in St. Louis, April 16, 17 and 18; the second in Kansas City, April 19, 20 and 21; and the third in New York April 25, 26 and 27. The final will be held in Philadelphia April 30, May 1 and 2.

QUART OF WATER A DAY HELPS KIDNEYS

Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. Then they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

LEETONIA NEWS

Mrs. T. B. Cope was hostess at the regular meeting of the Priscilla club of St. Paul's Sunday school at the Sunday school chapel, Thursday evening, the diversions were music, games and contests to which the hostess contributed by serving refreshments.

Music and games afforded pleasures for the young people who were guests of Miss June Cunningham Tuesday evening at her home in Somerset. Miss Cunningham served delicious refreshments with lovely Easter appointments.

The Kiwanis members were highly pleased with the way the subject was handled and while no vote was taken it was conceded by all that Leetonia needs the High School most since it can be so arranged as to serve the requirements of both buildings.

Out of $2,961.15, Columbiana county's share of the auto license fund from the state, Leetonia will receive $333.50. The village of Washingtonville will receive $109.

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes —Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

Canton Citizen Declares Tanlac Made Quick, Clean Sweep of Rheumatism

"Tanlac gave me such quick and splendid results that I have made a life-time friend of me," says Edward F. Steiner, 1744 Second St., N. E. Canton, Ohio, foreman for the Gilliam Mfg. Co.

"I was experiencing my first attack of rheumatism and was trying all kinds of medicines to dislodge it. It ached and pained me all over, but was especially bad in the hands and muscles of my legs. Tanlac had me crippled and limping around, and suffering and working to beat the band. I had a general tired and worn-out feeling, too.

"The Tanlac treatment did what I call a quick job. A course of three bottles drove out every ache and pain, leaving not a trace of soreness or stiffness, and the muscles were as free as they ever were. Besides, Tanlac has given me a good general overhauling—good appetite and digestion, plenty of strength and energy—and I always recommend it in the highest terms."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

The APOLLO GRAND PIANO

Only 4 feet, 8 inches long

THE Apollo Miniature Grand is a signal achievement in piano manufacture of great importance to those who lack the space for a larger grand piano. Through improved methods of construction by which greater string length and sounding board surface is possible, this remarkable instrument retains the tone quality and artistic merit of larger grand pianos.

Only 4 feet, 8 inches long, the Apollo Miniature Grand conveniently fits a corner of a room without crowding. And it adds that air of distinction and refinement which only a grand piano can give.

Improvements in the design of both the chassis and the famous Buick Valve-in-Head engine have contributed further to the well known Buick qualities of dependability and economy. Innovations in equipment have provided comforts in the open model that approximate those found in much more expensive closed cars.

For instance, with the Buick designed storm curtains, reinforced by the Buick weather strip, closed car coziness in bad weather has been closely approximated. A signal pocket for the driver, complete instrument board, transmission lock and many other conveniences are features every motorist appreciates.

HARDING PLUNGES INTO A SERIES OF OFFICIAL TASKS

Grand Rush To White House To Present Problems To President.

HUGHES HAS MANY IMPORTANT ISSUES

President To Clear Desk For His Trip To The Pacific Coast.

Washington, April 9.—Back at his desk in the White House after five weeks of strenuous vacationing in the south, President Harding rolled up his sleeves today and plunged headlong into a series of tasks which will keep him busily engaged until he is ready to leave Washington again for his trip to the Pacific coast.

The amount of administrative work that awaited his consideration was monumental in its proportions, and the president, bronzed by hot Florida suns and refreshed by hundreds of rounds of golf, waded into it with a determination to speed things up to the limit until he sees his way clear once more.

There was a grand rush to the White House this morning from all parts of the capital as cabinet officials vied with one another in being the first to get their various problems formally before the president.

All of them were given an opportunity during the day, however, to "talk things over" with Mr. Harding; and there will be a general discussion of governmental affairs, both domestic and foreign, when the cabinet meets tomorrow for the first time in six weeks.

Secretary of State Hughes stood well in the lead today with the importance of the questions on policy upon which he sought the advice of the chief executive. These included his controversy with Acting Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt over the interpretation of the Washington naval treaty with respect to increasing the firing range of the guns on American warships, the protest of the Canadian government against efforts of the shipping board to aid the enforcement of the Volstead act by prohibiting buyers of American vessels from using them in the rum running trade, and the pending negotiations in Paris to secure the payment of the $256,000,000 bill of this government for the maintenance of an occupational army in Germany from the beginning of the armistice until the French invasion of the Ruhr.

Mr. Hughes also planned to report to the president on the status of the negotiations with the Japanese government looking toward the abrogation of the Lansing-Ishii agreement, under which the United States in 1917 recognized the "special interests" of Japan in China. These negotiations have been conducted in profound secrecy and officials have permitted no inkling of their progress to be made public.

Many important domestic problems also were to receive Mr. Harding's immediate attention, including the plans of Chairman Lasker, of the shipping board to dispose of the government's great merchant fleet, the three-cornered probe of high sugar prices now being conducted by the department of justice, the commerce department and the tariff commission, and the request of Secretary of Commerce Hoover for an executive order from the White House to stop all government construction work during periods of labor shortage so that there will be work for the jobless during stress of possible depressions.

WHISKY IS FOUND IN MAN'S POCKET

Mayor Fines Yarvosky $300 After Police Raid His Home On Depot St.

It cost just $300 for John Yarvosky, 325 Depot st., to carry a quart of moonshine whisky in his overcoat pocket Saturday night.

Yarvosky was arrested at his boarding house at 9:45 p. m. Saturday by Officers Gray, Kirkbride, Eyn and H. Parker Lowell of the citizens committee, after a search of his room revealed a bottle of liquor in his overcoat pocket.

Suspicion had been directed against the boarding house, owned by Sam Hozz, and Chief Thompson ordered the place raided. The chief notified the citizens committee and asked for men to assist the police and Lowell responded.

When the whisky was found Yarvosky was not at home and police arrested the boarding mistress. The occupants of the house were notified that the woman would be held until Yarvosky was produced and it was just a half hour later that Yarvosky was arrested.

When arraigned before Mayor John W. Post, Yarvosky admitted his guilt and was fined $300. He arranged to pay the fine today and was remanded to the city jail until the money was produced.

The visit to the Hozz home was one of a series of raids made by the police officers Saturday night. His was the only place in which liquor was found.

3 Lisbon Houses Robbed, Jewelry And Cash Taken

Burglars entered three homes in Lisbon Sunday night and secured about $100 in cash and loot as the result of their activities.

The homes of W. B. Chaine, Clark Cable and W. J. Dorrance on East Chestnut st. were broken into during the hour of church services and judging from the evident familiarity with the interior of the homes it is suspected that local talent is involved.

Mrs. Cable, who had retired, heard a noise down stairs and called out, thinking it was one of the family returning from church. Receiving no reply she investigated and found the outer door open but nothing disturbed. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Chaine found that a bedroom upstairs had been literally turned inside out, and $25, a number of rings and other jewelry including some articles of clothing had vanished. The intruders had obtained entrance by using a "jimmy" on a kitchen window.

At the W. J. Dorrance home, a child's bank containing about $5, a gold watch belonging to Miss Martha Dorrance and a ladies hand bag containing about $1.50 in change were missing. Entrance had been obtained by using a "jimmy" on a window.

At the Dorrance home nothing had been disturbed, the intruders seeming to know exactly where to find what they sought.

The burglaries have increased the apprehension roused by a series of robberies perpetrated about two weeks ago. Efforts of the local police will be redoubled to apprehend the burglars as it is certain that local talent is involved.

Texas Marathon Dancer Puts All Pikers To Shame

Efforts To Gain Laurels Annoy Her, So She'll Dance 50 Hours.

New York, April 9.—Annoyed at the recent efforts to assume her laurels as the world champion long distance dancer, Miss Alma Cummings, Texas marathon dancer, holds the record again today.

She intended to put the record up to 40 hours at 3:10 this afternoon and is still feeling good to shove it up to 50 hours at 9:10 tonight and call it a record.

As she wore out her sixth partner, Miss Cummings said: "I am out to discourage these attempts to take my honors. I believe a 50 hour non-stop stretch will keep the pikers out."

AGREEMENT ENDS EAST LIVERPOOL'S TRACTION STRIKE

344-Day Dispute Ends As Strikers Ratify Terms Of Agreement.

East Liverpool, April 9.—(Spl.) East Liverpool's street car strike has been settled.

The settlement was reached yesterday afternoon after the city had been without street car service for 344 days.

Striking car men, at a meeting in Trades and Labor council hall yesterday afternoon, voted ratification of an agreement previously agreed to by officials of the Stouvenville, East Liverpool and Beaver Valley Traction company.

A formal contract covering the agreement was signed this morning by officials of Division No. 52 of the carmen's union and by officials of the traction company.

All points at issue have been amicably settled, and the only condition to immediate resumption of street car service here is enactment of an ordinance by city council, similar to the one passed several months ago and defeated at the recent special election, permitting the traction company to increase its fares.

City council will meet in regular session tonight and at that meeting an ordinance will be presented to increase fares in accordance with the schedule of prices provided for under the other ordinance.

The prediction was widely made today that if the ordinance is passed by council tonight, cars will be in operation here before the end of the week, and possibly by Wednesday or Thursday.

Officials of the traction company have proved to the satisfaction of the men that they cannot afford to pay the scale of wages asked unless they are permitted to obtain a greater revenue through increased fares. As a result the employees of the company will join officials of the company in asking council to pass the ordinance.

The settlement was brought about as the result of two weeks of quiet bargaining "behind the scenes" in which Atty. K. G. Thompson played the role of mediator. He it was who by a process of gradual elimination smoothed out step by step the points at issue until finally the point was reached where both officials of the company and their former employees had reached a basis of agreement.

This accomplished, the result was submitted to the men for a vote yesterday, and the agreement was accepted by them by a big majority.

PLAN TO ACT ON GOVERNOR'S VETO

Salem Sportsmen Assail Veto Of Fisherman's License Bill.

A meeting to consider some action to be taken on Gov. Vic Donahey's veto of the fisherman's license bill will be held Monday evening by the Salem branch of the Columbiana County Fish and Game association.

The measure, which passed both house and senate by a comfortable majority, would have been of great assistance in providing the fish hatchery at Guilford dam, which project has been promoted by the county association of sportsmen.

In a message to the legislature explaining his veto of the measure, Gov. Donahey declared that if it should become the policy of the state to license anglers to raise funds for the propagation of fish in inland waters of the state, such a measure should be preceded by more extensive activities to eliminate stream pollution, in order that the fish placed in the waters may live and mature.

"Our stream pollution is becoming a disgrace and a menace to the state," the governor declared in his message.

Individual protests against the veto of the measure have been sent to Gov. Donahey by members of the association throughout the county.

Pastor Eulogizes Traveling Men At Memorial Service

Rev. Harman Is Speaker At Woman Heads Pennsylvania Annual Exercises Of Salem Council.

Few persons have a greater opportunity to analyze character than traveling men, and we can best pay our respect to the memory of those who have gone before us by carrying on what they held to be noble.

So declared Rev. J. P. Harman of the Holy Trinity English Lutheran church, Sunday afternoon when he delivered the memorial sermon at the annual memorial service of Salem council No. 590, United Commercial Travelers, before a large audience of members and friends.

H. F. Wilson, senior counselor, presided over the exercises with the assistance of P. H. Mead, C. S. Metz, W. H. Voneman, E. W. Floyd, Conrad Thumm and F. H. Heckert. The memorial honored the following departed brothers: James E. Maule, Adna Silver Day, Frank W. Glass and Walter H. Meyerhofer. Miss Ora Vincent and Robert L. Wright sang a duet.

"The chief advantage in a memorial service is that it provides an opportunity for us to look back and to consider life in all its aspects," said Rev. Harman.

"Traveling men must be prepared to meet characters of all types and to make themselves friendly with all sorts of people. Traveling men soon learn to analyze and pick out the characteristics they most admire in men which lead themselves to improving community life.

"It is the common man who builds for himself an enduring memorial by accomplishing great things but by doing little things well and thereby serving his community.

"More than men of any other profession the traveling man must have charity of judgment that enables him to see good in others and to speak well of all men and to always see the brighter side of life."

Divine Services Honor Memory Of Departed Moose

100 Lodge Members Attend Memorial Program At Episcopal Church.

Honoring the memory of their departed brothers, more than 100 members of Salem lodge No. 571, Loyal Order of Moose, attended divine services Sunday night at the Church of Our Saviour.

Rev. F. S. Eastman and Jesse Dellenbaugh exemplified the ritualistic service of the order. An excellent musical program by the church choir was carried out and pictures of the life of Christ and the Resurrection were shown by Rev. Mr. Eastman.

Taking as his text, "I am the Resurrection and the Life," the pastor delivered a timely sermon in which he urged the need of preparation in this life, and stressed the ideals of lodge fraternity and brotherhood, showing the connection between fraternal ideals and the family life of Christ.

The following program was carried out:

Pine organ prelude, Miss Bernice Morgan; processional, choir; vocal, Rev. F. S. Eastman; vocal solo, "Lead Kindly Light," R. E. Roberts; Exemplification of Moose memorial ritual, Rev. F. S. Eastman and Jesse Dellenbaugh; chorus, "Alleluia"; choir, "Nearer My God to Thee"; choir, address, Rev. F. S. Eastman; vocal solo, "Now The Day Is Over," Mrs. C. W. Leland; recessional, choir.

INFIRMARY INMATE COMMITS SUICIDE

John Small, 72, Wellsville, inmate of the county infirmary, shot himself through the head Sunday, dying almost instantly. Small had been in poor health during his six years residence at the infirmary and the last week his malady had grown worse.

In some manner unknown to Supt. L. B. Harris he had procured a 32-caliber revolver and had concealed it in his room. While he was alone in the dormitory of the building he secured the gun and fired the fatal shot. Hearing the report of a shot the attendants rushed to the room and found him breathing his last.

The circumstances surrounding his death were investigated by County Coroner Van Fossan and a verdict of suicide given. The man had no relatives and will be buried at the institution.

GRABS PISTOL, KNIFE AND THREATENS DEATH

Lisbon, April 9.—After having celebrated Sunday too well, Felix Marshino, a Jordanville Italian, woke up Monday in a sorry mood. When asked to rise and start to work by his board ing housekeeper, Charles Flerkin, he grabbed a revolver and a knife and threatened all kinds of violent death to him and his entire family.

Deputy George Wright was called and soon put Marshino behind the bars at the city hall. Later Florida appeared before Squire Albright and made complaint against him and a trial was arranged.

Mrs. J. Willis Martin, wife of the president of the common pleas court of Philadelphia has been appointed foreman of the April grand jury. The chief business of the jury will be to investigate charges that narcotics are being sold to the inmates of the state and city institutions there.

SALEM AUTO CLUB STARTS CAMPAIGN FOR 400 MEMBERS

Club Takes First Step To Enlist Every Auto Owner In City.

A campaign to enlist 400 members was started Monday morning by the Salem Automobile club as the first step to secure every automobile owner in this district as a member.

The campaign will be in charge of D. W. Davis, secretary-treasurer of the organization. Officers and directors of the club are C. S. French, president; D. E. Mather, vice president; directors, C. W. Zimmerman, James England, H. B. Thomas, E. W. Floyd, A. W. Forney and D. E. Kellar.

The committee who will make the canvass for members includes Herman Kniesly, C. W. Zimmerman, C. A. Tolerton, D. E. Mather, Ward Eckstein, E. W. Floyd, H. B. Thomas, James England, C. S. French and D. W. Davis.

The automobile club through its membership in the Ohio State Automobile association and the American Automobile association, has aided in saving about $10,000,000 annually to the owners of motor vehicles through its work in bringing about the defeat of the gasoline tax bill in the legislature. This measure would have compelled every auto owner to pay a tax of two cents a gallon on gasoline.

The Salem club provided a means of securing auto licenses direct without the necessity of waiting for the tags to be sent by mail from Columbus. It is expected that more than 2,000 licenses will have been distributed by the club before summer.

In speaking of the work of the automobile clubs in helping defeat the gasoline tax bill, Charles C. James, secretary of the state association declared that "it was a battle of the taxpayers against the tax spenders, led by the Ohio State Automobile association through its 73 affiliated clubs, which practically shouldered the struggle alone except for the aid from the civic organizations over the state whose support was secured through the efforts of the various automobile clubs."

About 300 knights from Salem, East Liverpool, Lestonia, Youngstown, Canton, Cleveland, Lisbon attended this meeting.

CHURCH MEMBERS IN DEMONSTRATION ON LEAGUE ISSUE

Pandemonium Reigns When Capitol Pastor Plays Versailles Treaty.

TO BE FOUGHT OUT IN CHURCHES, CLAIM

Committee Head Pleads For U. S. Entry Into League.

Washington, April 9.—The issue of the league of nations injected into the forthcoming presidential campaign by former Justice John H. Clarke of the United States supreme court is going to be fought out in the churches as well as on the political stage.

Church members here in Washington were again taking sides today as they did two years ago following the delivery on Sunday of two sermons which invited them to line up for a final fight over Article 10 and other much debated international clauses presented by the Treaty of Versailles.

Denunciation of the Paris peace treaty and criticism of Woodrow Wilson in a sermon at the First Congregational church last night threw the audience into what at least one newspaper described as "pandemonium."

The speaker was the Rev. Charles F. Aked of London, New York and San Francisco who intimated that the former president had permitted himself to be "misled."

Pleads For League

At the same time Dr. Irving Fisher a member of the executive committee of the league of nations non-partisan association, was telling a large congregation at the Foundry Methodist Episcopal church, that it was the "Christian duty" of the United States to affiliate with the league and that such affiliation could only be accomplished through the churches.

When the Rev. Mr. Aked voiced his anti-league sentiments, a richly dressed woman in the audience rose to her feet with the cry:

"All friends of Woodrow Wilson will leave this place."

The aisles of the church immediately became congested as some members of the congregation sought to leave the church while others crowded toward the pulpit. Cries arose from various parts of the church, drowning the voice of the minister.

Attacks Wilson

Mr. Aked had just characterized the Versailles treaty as "an infamous document born of secret deliberations and treaties on the part of the Allies, which were a betrayal of the policy for which Woodrow Wilson as representative of America stood."

After the uproar subsided he continued his sermon which was entitled "Woodrow Wilson at His Best—a Tender, a Beautiful Idealization of the Great Failure."

There was no demonstration in connection with Prof. Fisher's pleas for the entry of the United States in the league of nations.

"If the United States is ever to enter the league," he declared, "it will be through the churches, and a realization that it is the Christian duty of the United States to do so."

AWARD CONTRACT FOR SCHOOL WING

Youngstown Firm To Start Construction Work About May 1.

The contract for the erection of the $50,000 addition to Salem High school was awarded to the Hawkins, Downey, Mason Construction company of Youngstown by the Salem board of education Saturday afternoon at a special meeting. The bid of this firm was the lowest of three received, at $42,495.

The Biehl Electric company with a bid of $585 was awarded the contract for the wiring and electric fixtures and the V. J. School company was awarded the contract for the plumbing and ventilation work.

Work on the new building is expected to be started about May 1 and the building ready for occupancy by Sept. 1. It will be of the same construction as the main building and will provide six new class rooms of the most modern type. Plans for the addition were drawn by the C. E. Owsley company of Youngstown.

Ground will be broken for the foundation of the new building as soon as weather conditions permit, it was announced Monday.

Trade Or Profession?
WITH the approaching end of the college year, which will mean to many young men and women in the United States, as well as in other countries, the end of their college course, will come the necessity of making definite and possible irrevocable decision as to the particular line to be followed in future activities. Time was, a generation or more ago, when the young men and young women equipped with a college education were regarded as the possessors of current capital sufficient to insure their safe entry upon what were then regarded as the only suitable line for educated persons to follow. The professions appealed to them most strongly. It was not to be thought of that the college graduate should enter into manufacturing. The more dignified departments of commerce, finance and railroad management, were not forbidden, it is true, but the great majority naturally took up studies which would fit them for the professions, or became teachers or instructors in the schools and colleges. But a change has taken place, due probably to the increasing numbers of college graduates and the consequent competition in the professions, and perhaps in part to the recognition that even more profitable occupations are to be found in the great manufacturing industries and in the trades which fit the ambitious and studious for executive positions than in the more crowded professions. The result is that the college graduate, finding himself with no other equipment than the education he has gained, and in need of entering at once upon work which will insure a livelihood, is beginning to seek his opportunity outside the professions and outside the classroom. But there is a class, and a large one, between the prospective professional man and the trained technical expert, who, with the end of the college year, must reach a vitally important decision. Those thus situated should not lose sight of the opportunity which intensive industrial training offers. In many of the trades which would receive them without regard to union labor regulations, the wages being paid are higher than the fees paid to the fledgling lawyer or his brethren in some of the other professions. The way of advancement should prove easy and rapid for the recruit who has the advantage of a college education. There is always room at the top, we have been told, and the top should be easy of attainment to those who are ambitious as well as qualified. It is a mistake to believe that employment in the manual trades is undignified. It is dignified if it is honest, and it is profitable if it leads to the rewards which integrity and honest service merit. The office buildings of the larger cities of the United States are filled to overflowing with well-equipped yet struggling lawyers who are without clients, doctors who are without patients, and efficiency experts without experience. Their numbers will be increased, this year and next year, and in the years to come, only to make the struggle a harder one. The young men and young women who are now at the crossroads should consider well, from their own standpoint, the problem which they alone can solve.

The Maxwell Motor Corporation's annual statement for 1922 just released for publication by Wm. Robert Wilson, president, is a record of remarkable achievement for the past year, and marks the Maxwell as one of the outstanding successes among automobile companies.
The reconstruction of the Maxwell product has been an obvious success to all who follow motor car design, but that such astonishing financial progress could have been accomplished coincidentally comes as a complete and commendable surprise.
The profits of the Maxwell corporation exceeded $2,000,000 for the year. On December 31, 1922, cash and security balances were in excess of $2,000,000 with a ratio of current assets to current liabilities of approximately 3 1/2 to 1. The splendid year-end showing comes on top of a record for the year which includes the retirement of over $5,000,000 in funded debt and the financing of the acquisition of the entire ownership of the physical assets of the Chalmers Motor corporation.
Over 55,000 cars were sold in 1922, placing the Maxwell in eighth position in the whole automobile industry; notwithstanding the fact that 1922 schedule call for a substantial increase over the previous year's business, car sales for January and February are exceeding the increased schedule by more than 10 per cent and March production and sales will show an even better increase.

Farm Organizations Are Efficiently Handled In This State.
More than 80 farm co-operative organizations in Ohio have been audited and given assistance in business practices by the auditing department of the Ohio Farm Bureau federation during the past six months. The work is going forward in an effort to make the co-operative marketing organizations more efficient in their operations.
That Ohio stands high in the way that co-operative organizations handle their business is the opinion of B. B. Mason, who has had charge of the co-operative auditing work. He declares that of the many states in which he has worked, Ohio stands first in the volume of business handled by farm co-operatives and the manner in which they are operating. While pointing out that there are no greater number of failures among co-operatives than among other businesses, Mr. Mason gives two main reasons for the failures that do occur.

It is pointed out that either the co-operative is not justified in starting business on the basis of the needs of the community or else it is mismanaged. Failure to recognize the need for efficient records and an analysis of such records as a means of improving the operations of the co-operative is given by Mr. Mason as one of the most common mistakes made.
Of the co-operative organizations studied by the auditing department of the federation, more than 20 are co-operative grain elevators and the balance are county livestock companies. The work has been extended to about 50 counties of the state.

How to Understand Electrical Terms
When you read on your light bill that so many kilowatt hours of electricity have been consumed, or a salesman in a store tells you that this electric iron may be used on direct or alternating current, the electrical terms involved may naturally puzzle you.
However, while no man can say exactly what electricity is, we all know what it will accomplish, and there are certain units for measuring it and certain terms applied to its operation that every current consumer should understand.
We have a really fascinating little booklet prepared by the Society for Electrical Development, Inc., which defines—with almost primer like simplicity—these electrical terms. We'd like for you to have one of these booklets. They're interesting reading.

USE MEXICAN AID IN RUBBER WAR

Recognition Of Mexico
Would Help Defeat Rubber Monopoly.

Washington, April 9.—Rubber as well as oil today became a factor in the problem of Mexican recognition, as American officials investigating the rubber situation awoke to the possibilities of the southern republic as a means of defeating the British rubber monopoly of the East Indies. Mexico has a vast area of lands suitable for growing several varieties of rubber, and the Mexican government is ready to co-operate with American experts or American capital in the exploitation of these facilities, according to Manuel C. Tellez, chargé d'affaires of the Mexican embassy here.

The transplanted India rubber tree grows in abundance in practically the whole of the humid region south of Vera Cruz, Señor Tellez declared, and the successful operation of a number of plantations there is ample proof of the suitability of the soil and climate for its cultivation.

Hardy Plant
In one important respect, he said, Mexico possesses a unique advantage over Latin-American countries where rubber is grown. The Guayule plant, from which rubber can be produced in large quantities, grows wild in all the northern states of Mexico from Zacatecas to the American boundary. Like the sagebrush and cactus in the American desert regions, this plant thrives, according to Señor Tellez, in the hot, dry latitudes and yields more than 60 per cent of rubber.

Department of commerce officials will take cognizance of the possibilities of the rubber industry in Mexico in the investigation which has been authorized by congress.

Since the United States is by far the greatest consumer of rubber in the world, and since both the government and individual business concerns are anxious to establish a source of supply independent of the British monopoly, it is assumed that the industry would be exploited on a huge scale if conditions in Mexico were found suitable. For such an enterprise, however, it is admitted that an adjustment of political relations on a basis satisfactory to both governments would be highly desirable, if not absolutely essential.

Ford Weekly Purchase Plan

For many years it has been Henry Ford's personal ambition to make the Ford the universal family car—to put it within the reach of the millions of people who have never been privileged to enjoy the benefits of motor car ownership.

During the past fifteen years over 7,500,000 Ford Cars have been placed in the hands of retail customers—more than a million and a half of them within the past twelve months—and yet there are still millions of families who are hopefully looking forward to the day when they can own a Ford. And now the way is open.

Under the terms of this plan you can select your Ford Car, set aside a small amount each week and you will be surprised how soon you will own it. In the meantime your money will be safely deposited to your credit in one of the local banks where it will draw interest.

Think it over. Five dollars will start an account. The whole family can participate in it—father, mother, brothers and sisters each doing a little.

Why not start today. Stop in and talk it over with your local Ford dealer. He will be glad to fully explain the details of the plan and help you get started toward the ownership of a Ford car.

"Kangaroo" Court Quits Trying To Drain Cincinnati Dry

Mayor Denies Rough Stuff Traced To Deputies Ended Activities.

Cincinnati, April 9.—Following a report that B. F. McDonald, state prohibition commissioner, had warned village courts in Hamilton county, declaring that the state would not tolerate "kangaroo court" methods that involved blackmail, extortion, "planting of evidence" and use of blank warrants by fee basis dry agents, Newton has quit the business of trying Cincinnati liquor law suspects.

Newtown, one of a half dozen rural communities thriving on the profits of Crabbie law raids into Cincinnati, which yield fat fees through imposition of fines, has been called by state and federal dry authorities one of the busiest "kangaroo courts" sites in Ohio, but Mayor Ralph Kinney, railroad engineer denies that alleged "rough stuff" traced to his deputies, led to the decision to go out of business.

The mayor has been going out on his run on the railroad three days a week, trying Cincinnati prisoners the three other week days. His explanation of the village's retirement from the game is pressure of business.

Last week two of his deputies were arrested on bribery charges, reporting the finding, police money on them.

Argument Over Few Cents Ends In Fight

An argument over 20 cents resulted in a free for all fight late Saturday night at the Central confectionery, Lundy and Main sts., and caused police to respond to a call to quell the trouble.

Two Salem youths used the telephone in the establishment to make a long distance call to East Palestine and when they offered the proprietor 20 cents for the call, he is said to have declared it was 25 cents for the message. An argument ensued and the proprietor is said to have struck one of the pair, which started the fight.

Officer Bryn responded to a call and the three were notified to appear before Mayor John W. Post at 7 p. m. Monday. Charges of disorderly conduct have been placed against them.

PRETTY PRINCESS HALTS OBJECTIONS WEDS WAR VETERAN

Rome, April 9—A tall slender, olive skinned girl, who in the legends of Italy was "born to be a soldier's bride," fulfilled the prophecy here today when the Princess Jolanda, eldest daughter of King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Elena, was married to Count Calvi Di Bergolo, war veteran and a captain in the Italian cavalry.
There were two services, one civil and the second religious, in accordance with the ritual of the Roman Catholic church. It was the first time a religious nuptial ceremony had taken place in the royal hall of the Quirinal palace, formerly the throne hall of the popes.
This was the first royal marriage in Italy in 27 years and the first in Europe since the Princess Mary, daughter of King George of England, was married 14 months ago.
The Princess Jolanda, a beautiful girl of 22, had been reported engaged to sons of two royal families—first the Prince of Wales and later to the crown prince of Belgium. Such a marriage contract would have had a large element of international politics and diplomacy involved in it. The wedding today was the culmination of a genuine love match, for the bride groom is not a member of royalty. He belongs only to the Piedmontese petty nobility.
Serious obstacles arose when Count Di Bergolo began to pay court to the pretty princess. The king and queen objected. But then Jolanda solicited the aid of her grandmother, the former Queen Milena of Montenegro. She proved an excellent diplomat and the parental objections were swept away.

Her Wedding Gown
Italy's court was in mourning for the late Queen Milena, who died shortly after the engagement was announced, but the mourning period was suspended for one day for the nuptials. Jolanda was radiantly happy and beautiful in her long-trimmed wedding gown. The gown worn at the civil ceremony was gray tulle with a wide band of white and silver brocade, low-waisted and trimmed with seven yards of priceless old lace. It was constructed on the simplest lines. In accordance with custom, Jolanda wore no jewels.
After the double ceremony Jolanda's semi-russet cheeks were suffused with blushes of happiness and excitement.
The wedding was a quiet affair, compared with the nuptial events of royal families in pre-war days. Seven hundred invitations were sent out but no representatives of foreign royal families were present.
Owing to the hard times through which Italy has been passing Jolanda had requested that there be no elaborate wedding presents, but that the money intended for this purpose should be turned over to charity. Consequently most of the gifts were simple, useful articles.

IRISH IRREGULARS DISCUSS PLANS TO ABANDON WARFARE

Dublin, April 9.—Two Republican irregulars and one Free State soldier were killed and four wounded today.
One Free State soldier was wounded when irregulars bombed Glenari station. Detectives in Dublin arrested a rebel captain and 12 of his followers. They located a large secret supply of munitions.
The Free State made public captured documents showing that irregular leaders during March exchanged views over the possibility of continuing armed resistance. The general opinion of the southern rebels was that it would be impossible to carry on the fight through another summer.
Many leaders declared in favor of continuing but said they had little hopes of eventual victory as the morale of the men had been shaken and they were suffering great privations.

MCGRAW IS STILL BIG BOSS OF HIS NEW YORK GIANTS

Mailed Fist Responsible For Commendable
Pitching.

New York, April 9.—The iron hand of John McGraw is responsible for the commendable pitching of Hugh McQuillan and Jess Barnes in recent games against the Chicago White Sox. Although it is not generally known, this worthy pair was more or less "concerned" in the breach of training at San Antonio, which ended in John Scott being fined $100 and the banishment of Earl Smith to the second team.

Just why McGraw countenanced the derelictions of McQuillan and Barnes and not those of Scott and Smith is not known, but he probably had his own very good reasons. No one can dispute the fact that his handling of men gets the desired result.

In this case, it has resulted in Scott, McQuillan and Barnes pitching excellent ball and the chances are that the incident would be speedily forgotten if McGraw did not have other plans. It is said that as soon as the second team returns from a protracted tour, McGraw intends to cut loose from Earl Smith with definiteness.

Tired of Smith

That is his first contemplated step by way of reprisal for the flouting of his stern discipline. His next is said to be a proposal to Cincinnati Reds, where the Barnes-Lucque trade negotiations will be reopened. If the Cincinnati club will accept Smith, he also will be tossed into the deal to good measure. In fact, he has tired of Smith as a steady diet and plans to let him go to the highest bidder if any.

As for Barnes, it has been no secret that McGraw has soured on his pitching during recent seasons and the spark of his antipathy needed only the San Antonio incident to be fanned into an active flame. Barnes' position with the world's champions is most uncertain at this time.

McQuillan has been given to understand that he is on probation, but his recent work has been so good it is likely that McGraw is willing to forgive and forget. As a matter of fact, he couldn't afford to let his resentment against McQuillan and Scott run beyond the bounds of good sense. The Giants must have a pitching staff if they intend to win their third successive National League pennant and the former Boston hurlers constitute just about 50 per cent of the strength of McGraw's pitching.

He, therefore, considered that his official dignity had been preserved with a fine for Scott and a tongue-lashing for McQuillan, meantime reserving for Barnes and Smith, less-valued members of the outfit, the privilege of paying for the incident in full.

Postpone Tourney Because Of Illness

New York, April 9.—Owing to the illness of Robert L. Cannafax, the round robin tournament for the professional three-cushion billiard championship, scheduled to begin on Monday in St. Louis, has been postponed one week.

Under the new schedule, the first set of matches will be held in St. Louis, April 16, 17 and 18; the second in Kansas City, April 19, 20 and 21; and the third in New York April 25, 26 and 27. The final will be held in Philadelphia April 30, May 1 and 2.

QUART OF WATER A DAY HELPS KIDNEYS

Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. Then they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes
—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known
Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

Trouble Is Over States Foreman

Canton Citizen Dastore Tantalac Made Quick, Clean Sweep of Rheumatism

"Tantalac gave me such quick and splendid results, that it has made a life-time friend of me," says Edward F. Steiner, 1744 Second St., N.E., Canton, Ohio, foreman for the Gullam Mfg. Co.

"I was experiencing my first attack of rheumatism and was trying all kinds of medicine, as directed. It ached and pained me all over, but was especially bad in the shoulders and muscles of my legs. This had me crippled and unable to move, and was fering and working to beat the band. I had a general aches and a worn-out feeling, too.

"The Tantalac treatment did what I call a quick job. A course of three bottles drove out every ache and pain leaving not a trace of soreness or stiffness, and the muscles were as free as they ever were. Besides, Tantalac has given me a good general overhauling—good appetite and digestion, plenty of strength and energy—and I always recommend it in the highest terms."

Tantalac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

The APOLLO GRAND PIANO

Only 4 feet, 8 inches long

THE Apollo Miniature Grand is a signal achievement in piano manufacture of great importance to those who lack the space for a larger grand piano. Through improved methods of construction by which greater string length and sounding board surface is possible, this remarkable instrument retains the tone quality and artistic merit of larger grand pianos.

Only 4 feet, 8 inches long, the Apollo Miniature Grand conveniently fits a corner of a room without crowding. And it adds that air of distinction and refinement which only a grand piano can give.

Low Cost—Comfortable Motoring

This Buick four cylinder, five passenger touring car affords dependable, comfortable motoring for every occasion.

Improvements in the design of both the chassis and the famous Buick Valve-in-Head engine have contributed further to the well known Buick qualities of dependability and economy. Innovations in equipment have provided comforts in the open model that approximate those found in much more expensive closed cars.

For instance, with the Buick designed storm curtains, reinforced by the Buick weather strip, closed car coziness in bad weather has been closely approximated. A signal pocket for the driver, complete instrument board, transmission lock and many other conveniences are features every motorist appreciates.
